

I. Phase Four - ESL Survival

Date: Monday A.M. July 7 - Thursday A.M. July 10

Location:

This Camp will be a four day ESL Survival camp with different students. This camp will be a NUTC College campus based camp. Those visitors in this camp will more than likely live in the teacher hostel by campus or Hotel rooms near campus.

Audience:

During the year, from September through Chinese New Year, we will be reaching out to Taichung city center college students using ESL outreaches to create relationships. It will be through these relationships, we will recruit up to 50 students who have never had much opportunity to speak English to participate in any of the camps. These students will be divided into 4 groups. The ESL camp will consist of Class/small groups. It will be held on campus. Outside activities are spontaneous and consist of students taking foreigners to shop, night market, museums, etc. Language topics will be based on Everyday Conversations.

American:

Requirements for the American TEAM will be a desire to speak English. Number to be determined

Facilities: NUTC College classrooms and local establishments
